The Treasury Department to-day received information of the arrest, at Denver, Col., yesterday, of Dennis Shea, for passing a counterfeit $50 note on the Third National Bank of Buffalo, N. Y.

THE RECEIPTS of national bank notes for redemption for the week ending to-day, amounted to $1,335,000, as against $045,000 for the corresponding week of last year. To-day's receipts were $164,000.

SECRETARY HUNT has concluded to or-ganize subcommissions in each of the mavy-yards in the country to ascertain the amount of the old worn-out material which has accumulated during and since the war, and which is of no use to the service.

HON. ANDREW WHITE, U. S. Minister at Berlin, has positively tendered his resigna-tion, to take effect August 15, at which time he will return to the United States. The secretary of legation will act as charge-d'affaires until Minister White's successor is

A SPECIAL from Fort Buford says Sitting Bull and 187 of his band were embarked on the steamer for Standing Rock yesterday, in charge of Captain Clifford and escort. Sitting Bull is silent and seeks to seedude himself from all association with his tribe or the troops.

CAPTAIN R. S. COLLUM has been detached from the command of the Marine Barracks, Washington, D. C. (remaining a member of the board of inspection), and is relieved by Capt. H. A. Bartlett, who is detached from command of the Marine Guard of the U. S. steamer Minnesets.

CUTTING OFF THEIR SPORT.—Secretary CUTTING OFF THEIR SPOIRT.—Secretary Hunt has issued a circular amending para-graph 17, chapter vi, of the U. S. Navy Reg-ulations, so as to read as follows: "Gamb-ling is prohibited on board the vessels and in the navy-yards, and in all other places belonging to or under control of the Navy Department."

A DISPATCH WAS received at the Navy Department to-day to the effect that two men in the Portsmouth (Va.) Navy-yard—a foreman of one of the gangs and a machinist—had raised a row at a Republican mass-meeting in Norfolk last night over some allusion to the wounded President, and managed to break up the meeting. No forther particulars are given event that further particulars are given, except that an investigation has been ordered.

CAPT. GEORGE E. BELKNAP, commanding the Alaska, now at Callao Bay, Peru, informs the Navy Department that, in making soundings in Anson Bay, fifteen miles to the northward of Callao, within a run of 112 miles from the coast, he struck a depth of 3,368 fathoms, or nearly four statute miles, the deepest water yet found in the South Pacific or in the eastern mar-gin of the North or South Pacific.

The following is a statement of the disposition made by the Treasurer of the United States of the National bank notes redeemed during the month of July: Notes unfit for circulation, assorted and returned to banks of issue, $307,000; notes unfit for circulation, assorted and delivered to the m and comptroller of the Currency for destruction and replacement with new notes, $3,138,600; notes of failed, liquidating and reducing banks deposited in the Treasury, $940,500; total, $4,386,100, being a decrease of $517,-200 over the month of July, 1880.

SECRETARY HUNT yesterday sent a letter to Rear-Admiral Howell, commanding the European station, that in view of the insufficiency of the accommodations which the Department is able to tender M. de Lafayette and his friends for their comfortable voyage from France to this country, it has been determined to obtain their transportation on a merchant steamer instead of one of tion on a merchant stoamer instead of one of the American naval vessels. Rear-Admiral Howell's previous instructions on this sub-ject are therefore revoked, but he is directed to be present with the flagship Trenton at the Yorktown celebration in October next.

Secretary Windom Threatened.— Secretary Windom is in receipt of an anonymous letter threatening his life by shooting unless Mr. George N. Lamphere, the appointment clerk, is removed by the 1st of August. Mr. Amos Bissell, a discharged clerk, is credited with being the author of the letter, but he called on the Secretary today and professed that day and protested that he knew nothing about it.

Chief Brooks, of the Secret Service, who is investigating the threatening letter to Secretary Windom, has not yet found any trace of the authorship. Secretary Windom told Bissell, the suspected author, that he had not said he wrote the letter, nor had he any evidence that he did.

INTERESTING NEWS FROM ICELAND.— Commander Wadleigh, commanding the Al-liance, writes to the Navy Department from Reikfavik, Iceland, under date of July 12, that he arrived there on the 9th instant, after a stormy voyage from St. John's, dur-ing which the bow part of the steamer was stove in, and one of the lower booms broken. ing which the bow part of the steamer was stove in, and one of the lower booms broken. The gale lasted twenty-four hours. No indications of ice were seen, though a southwest current was felt within two days' sail of Reikiavik. They were kindly received by Gov. Finssen, the parliament of Iceland being now in session. He has made many inquiries of the members regarding currents, drift-wood, etc. Commander Wadleigh says he shall endeavor to send through the members a description of the Jeannette printed in Icelandic to the districts of the island they represent, with the offer of a reward for any reliable information in regard to that ship. The French corvette Dupleix, ten guns, Capt. Dunance Vence, is in port; she has been around the island surveying for about a month and will continue her work through the summer. Capt. Vence has politely placed at my disposition the result of his surveys. A Danish ship-of-war left a few days before our arrival to look after the fisheries of the north coast. I am informed that the coast is now clear of ice, which was very heavy there in the spring, and is so now thirty miles off the coast. Two firms are Danish ship-of-war left a few days before our arrival to look after the fisheries of the north coast. I am informed that the coast is now clear of ice, which was very heavy there in the spring, and is so now thirty miles off the coast. Two firms are engaged in the coal business here, and from one of them I shall take about seventy tons and arrange to have a supply here for the ship about the last of September. Prices are moderate. I propose leaving here about the 15th instant, and shall stop at Seide's Ford, on the east coast of the island, where I hope to find a man acquainted with the northwest coast of Norway, as that part of Iceland is frequented by Norwegian fishermen. President Mitchell, of the St. Paul Railroad, telegraphs regarding the crops in the northwest that the slight decrease in yield is fully offset by the increased acreage. The Coal and Iron Journal's this week's advanced sheets say there is a fair business doing in coal, but not so great as a week ago, and in some quarters prices are a shade weaker. The trouble is that the companies can and will produce more than the market will take, and the indications point to a de-moralized market, which will not be prevented, but will eventually be remedied.

The managers have taken no action toward regulating the trade, and the proposed ward regulating the trade, and the proposed advance in price, August I, has been abaudoned. There is a very good business doing in all departments of the iron trade, and prices are higher, without exception. The outlook favors a tremendous consumption and a large business. Prices we likely to advance all around, and a more satisfactory demand could not be locked for.
